

A la carte MENU

Our meadows and hills are a riot of wild asparagus, mountain spinach, arugula (rocket), fennel, lavender, sage and wild thyme.

Truffles sprout mysteriously in our forests and our coastal waters teem with fish, and I'd defy anyone to consider our salty sheep's cheese, sweet cured hams and freshly baked breads as anything less than a feast.

I believe Istria will challenge France and Italy for the crown of Europe's best cuisine and I dream of that day.

Even famous tv chef Anthony Bourdain agreed in his "No reservations" albeit with somewhat more enthusiastic profanity.

It's just your luck we haven't told the world yet.
